

THE
CARTHAGE NATIONAL BANK.Capital, - - $50,000
Surplus and Profits, $30,000

G. B. JOHNSON, President.

JAMES PRINGLE, Vice-President.

M. S. WILDER, Cashier.

RECEIVED
MAY 7 1896

May. 6th. 96.

CARTHAGE, N. Y., ----- 189

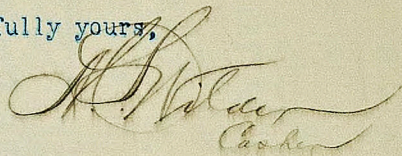

Supt. of the U.S. Mint,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir:----- When at Mint a few weeks since, my attention was attracted to a great many old Roman coins. I spoke to the guide about having one, and he suggested that I send to you, and they would look it up and report as to what it was, as well as to the value of the same.

Herewith you will please find the same. Please return with your report on same.

Very respectfully yours,

Cashier

996

MINT OF U. S.
PHILADELPHIA

MAY 7 1896

Carthage National Bank, N.Y.

May 6th 1896

Encloses a Roman coin for examination & report with return,

A denarius of the era the Roman Republic. This is of the Julia Family.
(Patrician) Julius Caesar was of that family.

The numismatic value
is 25ct. to 50ct.

In fine condition for 50¢
MC

[Abstract:] Encloses a Roman coin for examination & report with return.

No. 3672.
The Carthage National Bank.
Carthage, N.Y.,
May 6, 1896

Supt. of the U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir: --

When at Mint a few weeks since, my attention was attracted to a great many old Roman coins. I spoke to the guide about having one, and he suggested that I send to you, and they would look it up and report as to what it was, as well as to the value of the same.

Herewith you will please find the same. Please return with your report on same.

Very respectfully yours,
M.S. Wilder
Cashier

[Enclosed note:]

A denarius of the era the Roman Republic. This is of the Julia Family. (Patrician) Julius Caesar was of that family. The Numismatic value is 25 cts. to 50 cts.

MC

In fine condition to 6/11